

Instead of just
cooking it,
we cook it

All our meats are cooked in our huge charcoal oven. Okay, so it's more work than an electric or gas oven, but it infuses the meat with a delicious smokiness that only a BBQ gives you....and because it cooks the meat fast, it makes it deliciously succulent and full of flavour. This, with the best ingredients, sauces and dressings, makes all the difference. Welcome to The Good Luck Club.
